MORTUARY.

Higinio Montoya, aged 47, died at a local hospital yesterday of typhoid fever, after a residence here of about two weeks. Montoya came from Las Vegas, where a widow and one child are living. Pending the receipt of advice from them the body remains at Fred Crollott's.

FRANK H. WARREN.

Frank H. Warren, an instructor in the Chicago School of Mechanics, died yesterday morning at his rooms in the highlands. He leaves a wife, who was with him when the end came, and had been here about six months.

The body will be shipped to Chicago by Strong Brothers.

Funeral of Mrs. Louise Metz.

The funeral of Mrs. Louise Metz, wife of Nick Metz, was held this morning at 9 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church. Burial was in Santa Barbara. Many friends viewed the body at Crollott's emballishment yesterday.

Funeral of Mrs. Spinner.

COUNCIL TO CONSIDER PAVING OF CENTRAL

The city council tonight will consider, in executive session, the matter of petition for the paving of West Central avenue from 50th street to the city limits. The council, representing the city, would have to pay for about $80 feet frontage if the scheme went through, because Balloune park faces that street.

Routine business will also be transacted.
